Assets

Women often trail behind men in account and land ownership. Ensuring women have identity cards allows them the opportunity to access services and finance. Ownership of a financial account and land help women escape poverty and protect them from economic shocks.
The law grants spouses equal administrative authority over assets during marriage

Sons and daughters have equal rights to inherit assets from their parents

Hover over each square to see the data for specific economies

- Account ownership at a financial institution or with a mobile-money-service provider, female (% of population ages 15+). Source: Demirgüç-Kunt et al., 2018, Global Financial Inclusion Database, World Bank.
- Saved any money in the past year, female (% age 15+). Source: Global Findex database.
- Women who own a house alone (% of women age 15-49). Source: Demographic and Health Surveys (DHS).
- Women who own land alone (% of women age 15-49). Source: Demographic and Health Surveys (DHS).

Data retrieved from: World Bank Gender Data Portal
https://genderdata.worldbank.org/topics/assets/